We refer to your letter dated April 27, 2018 with respect to the news article entitled "CebuPac to fly 22 million passengers in 2018" posted in BusinessMirror (Internet Edition) on April 26, 2018. The article reported in part that:

"BUDGET carrier Cebu Pacific aims to fly about 22 million passengers by year-end, as it continues to build up its route network and its portfolio of jets throughout 2018.

Paterno S. Mantaring, the company's Vice President for Corporate Affairs, said this year's target—a 12-percent increase from the 19.7 million passengers flown in 2017—will also be bolstered by the tourism agency's goal of boosting domestic and international inbound tourists this year.

'To reach our goal of flying 22 million passengers this year, we remain committed to offering a compelling route network where we can meet rising demand and sustain our year-round low- fare proposition,' he said on Thursday.
